

Do you struggle with things you've done?

Unlock the Biblical secret to personal freedom

Day 1

“But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man’s judgment: yea, I judge not mine own self. For I know nothing by myself; yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord.”

1 Corinthians 4:3-4 KJV

Paul had an understanding of the weakness of human nature; we all fail. We want to do good, we aim to do good and live right but we always fall short. That’s why God covers us with His wonderful grace. In the meantime, we have to be very careful because someone is always passing judgment.

Paul said he would not let himself be judged by man’s judgment.

Man always judges you without knowing much. They don't know where you've come from, what you're going through, and they don't know the details of why something is happening. They rush to judgment, and sometimes, that can be so hurtful and destructive.

Paul refused to let himself be given over to people who didn't know all the details of why things were taking place in his life!

He wasn't trying to justify anything or make an excuse, but he knew people didn't know everything they needed to know to make a righteous judgment. Paul even refused to condemn himself — that's the key to this verse!

Paul wasn't saying to not examine yourself. We need to examine ourselves, but don't condemn yourself. Don't scrutinize or get down on yourself or you'll be a divided kingdom, and nothing works with a divided kingdom.

You have to be on your own team! Why? Because God is! That's what Paul was saying in this verse – he wasn't going to let people destroy him by their condemnation, nor was he going to judge himself because he couldn't comprehend why his heart was one way and his mind was another way.

Paul trusted that God knew everything going on in his life. You have to trust that God knows everything and that He is going to work everything out for your favor and your good!

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

Is Your Faith Under Attack?

Unlock the power of your voice

Day 2

"Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth."

Psalm 46:10

God will be exalted in each of our lives despite the enemy you may be facing. Sometimes we forget that it's God's job to get us in and out of things; it's the devil's job to make things seem too big or impossible.

The enemy will always make what you're in seem bigger than what you can handle. We buy into it all the time.

We may not tell everyone, but in our minds we begin to think, "Can I really be healed? Can my money really change?

Can my marriage ever be?" We find ourselves treading water.

What does God say? Slow down. Stop. Be still.

He wants us to get focused. Your sickness is not God. Your lack of money is not God. Your broken down car or apartment with no furniture is not God!

The Lord doesn't want any of those things talking to you and making themselves seem bigger than Him. God says, "I will be exalted! I will be lifted up!"

God is about to be magnified in spite of your condition, in spite of your circumstances! If you'll take a step back you'll come out realizing the devil is a liar and your circumstances are a false pregnancy—but your God is bigger! If you can exalt Him, He will exalt your situation and it will be an amazing breakthrough.

God says, "I will be exalted in the earth." Not maybe, not might be, but He will be. Make this your declaration today: "My God will be exalted in the earth!"

[illegible]

How can I stay positive in the middle of a storm?

Day 3

"Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised;) "

- Hebrews 10:23

It is easy to be positive when things are going well. You think positive. You talk positive. You have a good attitude.

But whenever so many people hit a storm or a crisis -- and they are real and can be very challenging -- the first thing that often goes is our thinking in the way we talk.

We just forget that God promised us that we would come through it. We forget the fact that God said that all things work together for the good.

It's so easy to go from positive to negative, just like that. We lose our profession. We lose our confession.

Where your mouth goes, you go.

In this verse he is saying, "Don't let your faith be wavering." Don't say one day I'm healed and another day I'm not healed. One day I'm going to make it and another day I'm not going to make it.

You vacillate. You waffle. What is the Bible say? You don't receive anything. Your word for today is to hold fast. Ask God, "Hey give me the grace." Oh God, empower me!

I'll do my part. I'll do my due diligence. Empower me to hold on to my confession."

I'm healed whether I feel like it or not. I'm rich because you became poor so that I might be made rich. I'm strong in the Lord no matter how I feel. It's going to work out no matter what it seems like."

When you get that down and people begin to ask you questions, you answer them with I'm trusting him.

It's better to say last and be positive than to say more and to move into doubt!

[illegible]

Day 4

"And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters. And God said, Let there be light: and there was light.."

- Genesis 1:2-3

There are times in our life when things hit a tailspin where we just find ourselves rushing to catch up to everything we're trying to do.

You could be raising children with a full-time job, taking care of your parents or trying to start a business—any one of these things can consume you.

There are so many people who are juggling and as you juggle, things get very confusing. You never know how to straighten it out and the more you try to straighten it out, the more confusing it gets.

The Earth in the beginning was like this. This Earth, because of the curse that happened to the Earth, was void—meaning that it was empty.

The Bible says that it was like that until the Holy Spirit moved over that mess. When the Holy Spirit moved over that mess, then the voice came.

The Spirit always moves before the voice comes.

The Spirit moved and then The Word came in. Then this supernatural order came in—it's crazy! If we knew how to do this more often, then we wouldn't be in the mess we're in!

It says that the Spirit moved and out of that Spirit moving came the order: the sky goes here; the water goes here; the land goes here and man goes over here—amazing!

How did all of that happen? The spirit moved over the mess.

One of the greatest things we can do, is not think too much of ourselves that we can figure this out. Going to a seminar, reading a quick book or even taking advice.

Sometimes NO ONE can figure you out but God. He's waiting for you to say, "Hey, move over me."

Ask the Holy Spirit to move over your life and begin to put things in order that He wants.

Sometimes this order thing is bigger than we think. We're so sure that we know how God wants to do this, but the fruit doesn't prove that—the fruit proves otherwise.

So what do you do? Do you keep going down that road of spotted fruit or rotten fruit?

Or do you take a step back and say, "Maybe, God is trying to do something different." So you say, "Lord, move over me. Move over my mind. Switch this around. Show me what you want me to do in the order that you want me to do it."

You know what will happen? The same thing that happened in The Creation, will happen in you. An order will come. All you have to do is recognize it. Why would that happen? Because you need Him. You want His plan—not yours.

He's not here to bless your plan, trust me. He's here for you to yield to His plan that's already blessed.

God doesn't want to bless all of your messes. God is not here to get me out of everything that I get myself into.

He's here to help me not get into as many of those because I'm following His plan.

Ask the Holy Spirit, “Move over me. Move over my thinking, my feelings and my emotions. Help me lay down my plans and pick up your plans.

I don't want to keep repeating the confusing over and over again. I need you.”

[illegible]

Day 5

"Every place that the sole of your foot shall tread upon, that I have given unto you, as I said unto Moses."

Joshua 1:3

When God made that promise to Joshua He was talking about Joshua taking his feet on foreign soil, meaning that he was going into enemy territory; land occupied by giants and other tribes.

But the Lord was telling Joshua that instead of it being afraid of the giant land, everywhere your feet go that ground is yours!

As we walk through life we go through a lot of places that are on enemy territory. We go through seasons where there's no peace, no joy, no money, or there's disease.

If you walk into a place where there's sickness your feet should say, "I'm walking in health!" If you walk into a place where there's no money, your feet should say, "I'm walking in prosperity!"

If you go into a place of loneliness and despair, your feet should say, "I'm walking in the abundant life of God!"

Everywhere your feet go you take the package with you into that place. God wasn't telling Joshua that he was going to that new land to be part of what was already there.

Joshua was taking the Anointing into that land! Everywhere you go, you are taking something with you that isn't already there!

[illegible]

Day 6

“And behold, a voice from heaven said, “This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased.”

Matthew 3:17 KJV

There is nothing greater than to know you are pleasing the Master. So many people live to please ourselves; it's all about us.

Or we live our lives to please other people. We end up empty and frustrated. Even though you're pleasing yourself or pleasing others doesn't always mean you're pleasing the Lord.

There is a time when each of us needs to step back and say, "Why am I here? Who am I here to please? Who really matters the most?"

When you can answer those questions for yourself then you can really begin to understand this scripture. You want to be a God-pleaser.

You can't please people, at least not all the time. You can't even please the people around you that love you the most all the time. We can try but end up with disappointment and heartache.

The one person that we can strive to please is Jesus Christ!

How do we do that? Simply let Him be more included in your life at a higher level.

Include Him in all of your decisions – your money, your relationships, everything you're deciding to do like where you're headed and what your dreams are.

Come before the Lord and include Him. Ask the Holy Spirit what He thinks. That pleases Him! Do you know why? It reveals your openness for God to say “yes”, “no”, or “not now”.

It gives God the power to navigate you, because you’ve surrendered to Him.

God wants to know that you believe He has a better way than you do. You want to please Him more?

Let Him in more at a higher level! Then God will let you know you’re pleasing Him just like He let Jesus know.

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

Day 7

"They that observe lying vanities forsake their own mercy"

Jonah 2:8

God doesn't want us to have to make excuses for all the things we do wrong and cause ourselves to move into a place of denial.

We can excuse behaviors based on our ethnicity like, “Well that’s my Latino temper..” Or we excuse ourselves with, “I didn’t get enough sleep,” or “I haven’t had enough coffee yet...” And we shift the responsibility of an action taken.

A lying vanity is when you excuse something to benefit yourself, or make yourself feel okay.

God says that when we do that we may pass the people test, but we don’t pass His test.

God doesn’t want us to deny these things when He shed His blood on Calvary to cover everything that we’ve ever done or will do.

God wants you to know that He’s got you covered!

He loves when you can come to Him and say, “I know I shouldn’t have thought that. I know it was wrong, Lord forgive me...”

That’s a part of walking in the spirit!

Every time you draw from the blood at Calvary, every time you draw from the forgiveness that flows from Jesus’ heart to you, it makes everything Jesus suffered for worth it.

There is no need for excuses. No need to feel bad or be ashamed.

God knew when He saved you that you weren't perfect, and He knew that you and I would be making mistakes all the way through this journey.

Should we be talking better and thinking better? Yes, but still in your state of imperfection, don't excuse everything. Continually call on Lord and ask Him to wash you.

It will cause you to be closer to Him and it will put you in perspective with the real you. It will give you a freedom you've never known!

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

Why does God sometimes block us from peoples' help?

Day 8

“And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him. And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father’s have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger!”

Luke 15:16-17 KJV

Sometimes there is no one with skin on who can help you.

God uses people, but sometimes we become so dependent on our relatives, our friends and our church. We get so used to people helping us that we lose sight of – Who is Jehovah Jireh? Who is God our provider?

In this particular story, Jesus makes it clear that the prodigal left, spent his money and was in a no-win situation.

Then He says, “and no man gave him unto him.” God blocked off the help of human effort; the arm of man. Why does God do that? Think of a shepherd.

He herds us into a vertical connection with Him.

God did the same to Elijah. Elijah thought he was the only one left, but God said, “I have thousands who won’t bow their knee” (1 Kings 19:18).

If there were thousands, why wouldn’t God help Elijah get connected to them? God wanted Elijah to come to Him. In Genesis 12, God told Abraham to get away from his family and come out where he was alone with God.

He had a covenant He wanted to make with Abraham. There are certain times where God chooses not to use people because then people get too much credit; God is left out in the cold. When Peter was sinking in the water there was no one around him.

The other disciples were in the boat watching it happen. Only Jesus was out there on the water with Peter.

There was one hand that reached for Peter; no other hand. Wouldn't it be wonderful for you to begin to experience that hand that is reaching for you.

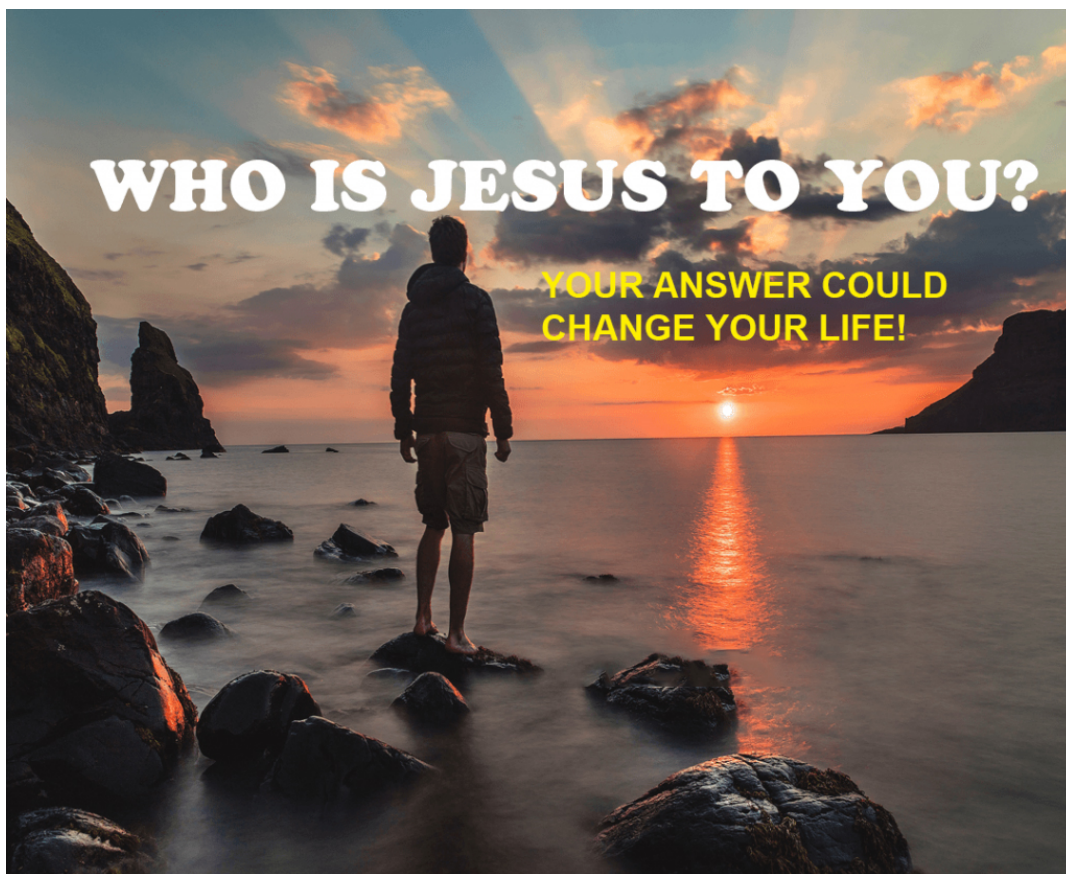

The only way you can know that hand in a great way is if you refrain sometimes from running to the people you always run to.

Begin to try and help yourself, even on a smaller scale, “Lord, I’m asking you to connect me to them. Lord, I’m asking you to open up that door.”

“Lord, I’m asking you to connect me to the money that I need.”
Let the Holy Spirit come in and *connect you in a way that only
He can do.*

You’ll begin to come into contact with the living, supernatural sovereign God, who says, “There may not be anyone around you with skin on who can help you, but I’m always right here connecting you to your next need, to take you to your next level!”

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and extend across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

Day 9

"When Jesus came into the region of Caesarea Philippi, He asked His disciples, saying, Who do men say that I, the Son of man, am? So they say, "Some say art John the Baptist: some, Elijah; and others, Jeremiah, or one of the prophets." He said to them, But who do you say that I am?"

Matthew 16:13-15

Jesus didn't want Peter to live off of the opinions of others. He wanted Peter to formulate his own conviction of who Jesus was to him, and that's what God wants for you!

Everyone has their own concept, idea or value of Jesus in your family, your friends or people at work.

It's good to learn from them.

But God wants you to have a very personal and deep conviction of who Jesus is to YOU!

For some people, Jesus is who they meet at church on Sunday mornings, or He is who they meet when they die and go to heaven. But for others, it's very deep and personal; Jesus is their life.

The reason Jesus came into your heart wasn't only to meet you in heaven.

He came in to you so He could live inside of you every day of your life. Jesus wants you to hear Him, feel Him and experience Him on a day to day basis!

God's desire isn't for us to experience Jesus part-time, or to live off others' concepts of who He is.

You have to make a decision that you want Jesus with you every day of your life.

Allow Him to do more than save you and deliver you, but to live in you, walk with you, talk to you, guide you, and assure you that you're going to achieve everything He has for you!

Jesus said in John 14:6, "I am the way, the truth, and the life..." Make a decision today, to make Jesus your life!

[illegible]

Day 10

“To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that he might be glorified.”

Isaiah 61:3 KJV

God wants to make an exchange with you.

God said He will give you beauty for your ashes; He will give you the oil of joy for your mourning; He will give you a garment of praise for your spirit of heaviness.

In this verse, God is not just saying all that He's going to give you and nothing else. He's saying that He's going to make an exchange.

God needs you to give Him your ashes, and then you get the beauty. He needs you to give Him your heaviness, and then you get the garment of praise.

God wants you to surrender that which is hurting you. Many people want to hold on to stuff. They want to hold on to pain, anger, or failure, and they want what God has but they don't want to give up what they're carrying.

God knows that's not good for us. What God has, is supposed to replace what we have.

God gives us the perfect, and we give Him the bad; God gives us the excellent, and we get rid of the ordinary.

God has so many amazing things planned for you, for myself and for all those that believe in Him, but we must come to the altar of God to make an exchange.

When they used to bring a sacrifice to the altar, they would lay the animal down, surrendering it, and God took it and left them something new. God always makes an exchange with us. He takes our sin and gives us peace.

He takes our sickness and gives us healing. He takes our lack and gives us abundance! However, there has to be a willingness on our part to say to God, “Here is my broken life. Here are my failed opportunities. Here is my frustration – Lord, I give it to you.”

Then God can give you the best that Heaven has to offer!

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

Day 11

"For his anger endures but a moment; in his favor is life: weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning."

Psalm 30:5

God wants you to know that you are not stuck in any one season! This scripture confirms to us that our hard seasons only last for a certain time, and then God brings us into a better season.

We all go through different seasons.

Sometimes we go through seasons that are very challenging or heavy, and often the seasons that test us last longer than we want. “Weeping may endure for a night...” Just because you want something to be over doesn't mean that it is over.

How we handle these difficult seasons can slow down or accelerate the next new season.

Don't be a survivor, be an overcomer!

A survivor waits for something to be over so something new can begin.

An overcomer says, “I'm going to take a stand right now!” An overcomer will act like it's already done. An overcomer will act like they're already healed before they're healed, or like they're already rich before they're rich.

That's how you beat the challenging season you're in. Don't crawl out of it, walk out of it! You are an overcomer, not a survivor!

[illegible]

Day 12

"Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage."

-Galatians 5:1

There are so many things God delivers us from: the fear of death, a bad marriage, emotional tailspin, drugs, alcohol, and so much more.

When God brings you out of something life threatening, emotionally threatening, or makes you feel worthless, we find that Jesus is a liberator.

God enjoys bringing you out of this and saving you from that, so He can take you into His glorious plan!

What can really sandbag progress, however, is when a person keeps going back to that same place of bondage. You don't have to be hopeless or believe what everyone else says.

That's why Paul said in this verse, "Stand fast..." Don't be entangled, again. God's power is for you and it's for now! If Paul said you can stand fast and never entangled again, then you can be confident that you don't ever have to go back there or be in that lifestyle again!

There is enough power in heaven and earth to keep you from going there. But God needs you to make a stand.

How do you make that stand? Reset your mind!

Make up your mind that you're not going back there, because you will be tested. The enemy doesn't like to lose anything he's ever had over you.

He will try to tempt you in the same area where he's already had you: in that place of fear, that unclean place, that place of addiction, or whatever place he occupied.

He will come at you until he runs into the standard that you raise up that lets him know you're never going back; that you've found a better way of living; that you found the will of God and a plan that's worth living for!

Remind the enemy that, “no weapon formed against you shall prosper!” (Isaiah 54:17)

You can make that stand, and by the grace of God you won't ever go back to that place of bondage again!

[illegible]

How Deep is Infinite?

Day 13

"Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not."

- 1 John 3:1

The Greeks, in the New Testament, were very precise with their language, more so than our culture is today. John was known as the Apostle of Love.

One of the words of love was Storge, which means family love; the way you love your mother or father. Eros which means sexual love, or marriage love.

Phileo which translates to brotherly love, and Agape which means unconditional love; where you love but don't expect anything back in return.

Agape isn't "I love you if..." or "I love you because..." It's an "I love you anyhow" kind of love. That's the kind of love God gave for you and I, unconditional love!

Even in your worst of the worst, after you've backslidden, or mishandled the trial, or lost faith, God still loves you. The enemy wants to come in and make you feel like an unwanted, unloved failure.

In this verse John is saying that our God's love is not performance oriented!

Our God's love isn't based on how well you perform with the Bible or in church. John said, "What manner of love the Father has given that we should be called the sons..."

Do you get mad at your sons? Yes. Do you disown them? No! Because there is something inside of you that takes over and says they are "bone of my bone and flesh of my flesh."

Do you know what God says about us? "We are spirit of His spirit." And the love He has for you is an everlasting love; it's an unconditional love. All the grace that He has, is not because you do this or don't do that.

God just loves you anyhow! We aren't used to that kind of love. This whole world is based on conditional love and performance.

We don't fully grasp that the love of Jesus is solely based on, "I love you." His love is radical and it's different!

It can be an adjustment to get used to that, but make that a goal this year to acknowledge that you want the love God has for you!

It will deliver you!

It will help you endure and overcome in so many situations, and reduce your expectations on other people.

You'll know that maybe you can't measure up to their standards, but you already have the seal of approval from the Master on high!

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

Day 14

“And they were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What thing is this? What new doctrine is this? For with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits, and they do obey him.”

- Mark 1:27 KJV

These disciples had an awareness of the spiritual world, in more ways than we do today. They knew the spiritual world has an effect on the natural world.

Most people today are shipwrecked. They give into everything that they think and feel, or become overwhelmed by what they saw on television or the internet. It's tempting to only look at the natural.

Unclean spirits use everything that they can to get into your thinking. Their goal is to break your flow with God.

They want to get you into guilt and shame and trap to where you never feel worthy enough to be and do everything that the Lord has called you to do.

They're unclean. They defile your mind and your body. Without freedom from unclean spirits, people live their whole lives yoked to guilt and shame.

The disciples were amazed!

Jesus came and all He did was raise His voice and tell the spirits to get away, get out and back down. The disciples knew that these spirits who ruin lives, listen to Jesus.

The spirits that overpower even the greatest religious people, listen to Jesus.

The same voice of authority that was in Jesus, is in you!

If there is a struggle in your life today, or someone near and dear to you who is struggling, raise your voice and tell that unclean spirit, “In the Name of Jesus...” or “By the shed blood of Calvary, I rebuke you from myself (or my loved one)!

I don't want you in my mind! I don't want you in my body! I don't want the result that you bring. I want the reward that God brings!

If you begin to do this and get into a habitual flow, you will find out this—the same spirits that listened to Jesus, will listen to you!

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

DAY 15

"Only be strong and very courageous, that you may observe to do according to all the law which Moses My servant commanded you; do not turn from it to the right hand or to the left, that you may prosper wherever you go."

- Joshua 1:7

Stay Focused!

God wants you to be focused on what His Written Word says about your health, your money, your marriage, your children, and your future.

Everything God has promised us—about our years, our strength, our finances, etc.—is where we are to keep our focus!

The winds of change regarding your circumstances, the influence of media or unbelievers, are all working to try and move you to the left and to the right.

Your body tries to get you to look at the pain, your bank account tries to get you to look at the bottom line, and while we look at the circumstances, we are not to focus on our circumstances.

Your focus is to stay on what God's Word says. God's promises are for you to be healthy, restored and to come out a champion on the other side!

If you stay focused, your feelings will follow! Don't go right... Don't go left...

Stay focused on the promise, and it'll take you to the other side!

[illegible]

Day 16

"For this cause I, Paul, the prisoner of Jesus Christ for you Gentiles..."

- Ephesians 3:1 KJV

Paul is writing while he is chained to a Roman sanatorium. He's a prisoner of Rome, seemingly. Paul realized that sometimes before you can defeat the problem, you have to define the problem.

You define things on the inside!

Paul refused to see himself as a prisoner, even though he was chained. Refuse to be a prisoner to a wheelchair, to medication, to a diagnosis, to a bad marriage...

Who you're a prisoner of is who controls you. Paul defied his circumstance, and that released him on the inside to maintain his faith, his joy, his aim and his future!

Today, God is saying that you're not a prisoner of what you feel you're a prisoner of. Don't let what's around you imprison you.

Break out of that prison!

And begin to declare that you're a prisoner of the Lord. That will put Him in charge of everything!

[illegible]

Day 17

"And the man of God said, Where fell it? And he showed him the place. And he cut down a stick, and cast it in thither; and the iron did swim."

2 Kings 6:6

The man in this story had been working with an axe, and as he was working the axe head came off and sunk in the water. He went to the prophet and told him he had lost the axe head.

The prophet came over and asked where it fell, and the man pointed to the place in the water where it sank. The prophet took a stick, touched the water and the axe head came floating to the top.

As we go through life we can lose our cutting edge. We aren't as sensitive, sometimes we aren't as discerning, we can lose passion, or lose sight of our purpose. Life can take a toll on each of us and we lose things without even realizing it.

How do you get your cutting edge back?

By showing the Lord what is missing! The Holy Spirit wants you to point to what has been lost in your life.

Don't be in denial, but open up and tell the Lord what you've lost sight of. Whether it's your first love, your joy, your peace or your passion. Whatever you point to, God will cause to float again and come back into your life. How can you find something if you don't admit you've lost it?

Show God what you think is missing in your life. Make that your goal today, and watch the Holy Spirit ignite passion and purpose in your life!

He will bring it back to the surface to enable you to serve Him and do all that He's called you to do!

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

Day 18

*“And Jesus took the loaves; and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes as much as they would.”
John 6:11 KJV*

The Greek word for the bread, or the loaves, that the young boy had in this story, was bread for the very, very poor. It was bread that had been made for animals. It was not food made for an upper class of people; it was not nourishing to them.

Jesus multiplied the fish and the loaves, and He distributed the “beggar’s bread” to the crowd. You might say, “Why would Jesus give everyone such a poor bread?” If we look at John chapter 6, verses 32 and 33:

"Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world."

John 6:32-33 KJV

In this verse Jesus is saying, “I am the true bread.” Jesus never wants to be replaced. He gave a lesser bread so the true bread wouldn’t be replaced.

The same way in our lives today, Jesus never wants your healing to replace the Healer. He never wants your money to replace the Provider. He never wants your success to replace the One who gave you the strength to be successful.

God is never going to give you anything that replaces Him. So often we get healed or we receive money and we replace God. We get blessed and we think no longer need Him. We misinterpret the reason God gave us the blessing to begin with.

God doesn't bless you so He can be replaced. He blesses you so you can include Him in your blessing. When you're faithful with including Him, then God sees that He can give you more—more anointing, more money, more favor, more opportunities.

Take what God gives you and begin to realize that it's His token of love to you. If you can be faithful with it, He'll give you more!

[illegible]

A person with long, wavy brown hair, seen from behind, wearing a blue jacket. They are holding a large, unfolded map in front of them, looking at it. The background is a vast, open field with brown, dry vegetation under a cloudy sky.

Set the Course... for Your Miracle!

Day 19

“Beat your plowshares into swords and your pruning hooks into spears: Let the weak say, I am strong.”

Joel 3:10 KJV

Why would the prophet tell the weak to say they are strong? Shouldn't the weak should say they're weak? This prophet knew that one of the major laws of God is that your mouth sets everything in motion for your life.

God wants you to speak not of where you are, but of where He sees you and where He's taking you!

Let the sick say, I am healed! Let the poor say, I am rich! Let the confused say I am sound! When you begin to release with your mouth where you want to be or where God wants you, and not where you are, God is able to come in behind those words and make it come to pass!

He watches over His word to perform it. He is looking for your bit of effort to be more positive and speak what His word says; not what you feel, or what your family or the media says.

Make a decision to speak a healing word to yourself despite how your body feels, or declare that restoration and favor is coming your way despite how your circumstances appear.

As you release that from your mouth you set heaven in motion! And when heaven is in motion, the blessing of the Lord is coming your way!

Begin to practice speaking: "I am strong, I am healed, I am blessed, I am highly favored!" And you will talk yourself right into the blessing of God!

[illegible]

Day 20

"Confess your faults one to another, and pray for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much."

James 5:16 KJV

It took just one man, Elijah, who prayed and the rain stopped. It was one man, Sampson, who picked up the jawbone of a donkey and took out thousands of people.

Just one woman, who started to pour out her oil, and the oil pots grew and grew, enabling her to pay all her bills.

The Bible is filled with stories about the power of ONE person! If we look at the story of Jesus: one man who obeyed and as a result many were made righteous. Don't ever think that you always need everyone around you to be on your side.

You have God on your side! And when God is on your side He will empower you in every prayer you pray, every thought you think, and every decision you make!

Don't worry about everyone else. Having God on your side can change everything. Know that whenever you pray, it's powerful! When you think, it's powerful! And when you confess, it's powerful!

YOU have the power to make all the difference where you are, all by yourself!

[illegible]

Day 21

“And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.”

Romans 8:28 KJV

Sometimes we as Christians quote this verse and we think it doesn't matter. We think everything is all going to work together for the good—not necessarily!

There are a lot of people, including Christians, who have things in their life that are not working together for the good. There is this thing that God calls, His purpose for your life.

As we experience His goodness, His grace and His mercy, God expects us to yield to His purpose for us, instead of us wanting our own purpose for our lives.

Sometimes if you push for your own plan and push for what you want instead of laying it down and saying, “It’s what you want Master...” things won't work out for the good.

We push for our own will and a lot of times it doesn’t work. But if you are pushing for God’s purpose, and you come into hardship, attack and setback, you should have a peace knowing that you’re pushing for what He wants.

Sometimes we can get off track and want our own way, but we can get back and get in line and say, “Oh Lord I want what you want...”

Then you have assurance of this powerful promise, that somehow, some way God is going to take all of it, the good, the bad, and the ugly, put it into the blender, and cause it to come out really, really good for you!

What is going to come out good? All THINGS! And they are going to work together. It's going to happen for you!

You may think, “But how is that going to be? How is this ever going to work out for the good?”

That's what God likes to do! He likes to show up in our places of question and He says, “Watch me work with this. Watch me take this mishap. Watch me take this setback. Watch me take this place of attack...”

When you are after God's purpose, He will make those things work out so spectacular for you! You can count on that everything going on around you, God will work for your good!

[illegible]

Just Hanging On?

Day 22

“Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.”

Ephesians 6:10 KJV

All of our lives we're told, “Be strong, hang tight, stay together, don't cry, act your age, don't let them see you sweat!” But often times our strength runs into something stronger.

When we run into things stronger than what we have to offer, we come up short because we try to stay strong in ourselves.

This great verse tells us to be strong in the LORD! Ask Him to give you strength in your mind and in your emotions. We will always run into things in life that are bigger than us.

But we will never run into anything bigger than God!
Continually remind yourself, “I am weak in myself, but strong in Him!”

Be strong in the Lord and in the power of HIS might! And HE will keep you together and see you through.

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

Day 23

"Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts: And see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting."

Psalm 139:23-24

Sometimes we don't cover it all. Sometimes things bypass us; we're tired, we're busy and sometimes we justify behavior or justify our thinking, and things end up in the deep recesses of our soul.

It can begin to sand bag and block blessings when we're not even aware of it. We think it's something "out there" or we don't know where the block is, and we don't think there is anything in between us in the Lord.

You don't ever want to be in any kind of denial. Denial is deadly. You always want to be open and transparent with God, and be one to realizing that maybe something got past your radar; something may have gotten in like a thought or feeling that you're unknowingly harboring that wants to create all kinds of problems.

Have you ever gotten an X-Ray or a blood test? Maybe the doctor came back saying they found something, and you thought, "That can't be..."

Something was there and you didn't even know it.

That's what this verse means! David is saying, "I don't want to risk my present or my future because there's something there that I'm not aware of." We're human. We're frail. Things can get by us.

Ask God today to search you. He has a light that can shine so bright and deep into your soul. Let Him turn that light on!

And if He finds anything that you're not aware of, give Him permission to lead you into the way of everlasting.

He wants to lead you to where He leads all of us: the cross at Calvary. Don't mess around with that! The blood of Crimson Tide still flows, cleans, wipes away, and brings peace. Don't take a chance of something inside blocking the blessing for your future days.

Just do what David did, "Lord, search me. If you find any wicked thing - A thought... A word... Anything. Cleanse me and lead me in the way of everlasting."

I promise you that will keep the blessing flowing, keep you in a great fellowship with God, and make everything around you evolve and accelerate in a greater way!

Day 24

"And they continued steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine, the fellowship, and in the breaking of bread, and in prayers."

Acts 2:42

It's not what you start in life, it's what you finish. However, you can't finish something unless you start and continue. Continuing is that middle road between Egypt and the Promise Land.

You can't jump from one to the other automatically. There is a continuation, a forming of habits, a pattern or routine that has to take place.

We can often misinterpret routine to be religious or bondage. Having routine in your life is healthy. Routine with the Lord gives God the opportunity to visit you on a regular basis!

So many people start out doing things but they don't continue. If you don't continue how do you finish?

Starting a prayer life is good, but you have to continue to pray.

That's great that you started going to church, but you have to continue to go to church. Take a look at your life and see what you are continuing, and you'll find that is where your values are.

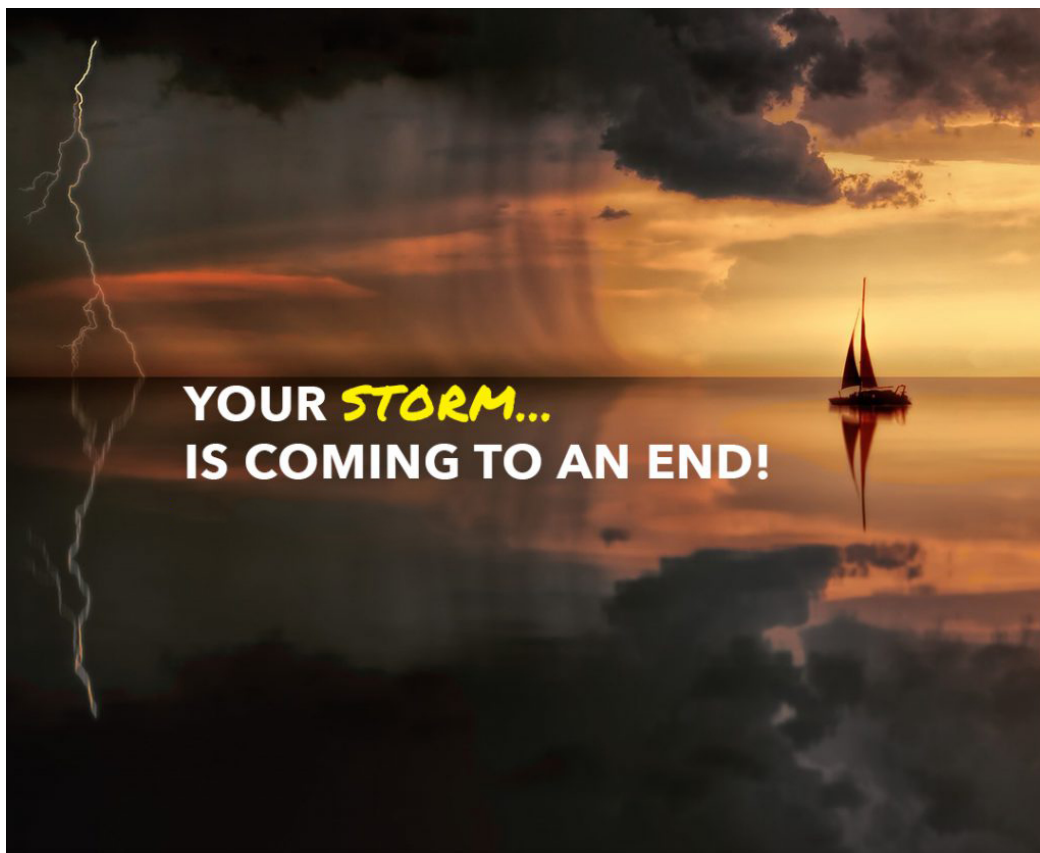

What you do continually is what you deem to be important, and sometimes your values have to change before God can do what He wants to do. Look at your schedule, your daily routine, and see exactly what you do on a regular basis.

Habits are the secret to your whole life. Show me your habits and I'll show you your destiny! Destiny is not chance, it's choices. Choose today to continue to pray, to continue go to church, to read your Bible, to speak words of faith, to give, and to treat your body with the right nutrition.

So many say, “Well I started, but...” Don’t be one of those people. Be one that is in this scripture that continued, and I promise you that you will not only have a more satisfied way of living, but you’ll end up in a satisfying place!

[illegible]

YOUR STORM...
IS COMING TO AN END!

Day 25

“And the parched ground shall become a pool, and the thirsty land springs of water: in the habitation of dragons, where each lay, shall be grass with reeds and rushes.”

- Isaiah 35:7 KJV

God is saying in this verse that He is going to change your landscape. Get ready!

Your landscape—the people that you are used to, the money level that you are used to, and the opportunities that you are used to—everything is about to change!

All of the places that haven't worked, the doors that have been closed, and the sky that has been sealed, God is saying, "I am about to change heaven and earth!"

- Where it was closed, it is going to be open!
- Where it was impossible to get through, it's going to be easy access.
- Where there was no favor, there's going to be favor.
- Where you had no opportunities, there is going to be abundance!

Where you couldn't seem to meet the right people, you're going to them meet now! The right people that could help you get further down the road. Maybe someone that has more information about nutrition or the field of work that you are in.

Whether it is real estate, carpentry work, or developing your own website – God is about to change your landscape!

What did He say? "Parched ground becoming a pool, thirsty land becoming springs, and where the dragons were, there is going to be grass, and rushes of running water.”

Get ready for a change in your landscape! It’s coming—sooner than later—as a matter of fact, I hear that water rushing RIGHT NOW. That’s your word today!

[illegible]

Day 25

"Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons"

- Acts 10:34

This is a pretty interesting verse which most Christians know: That God is no respecter of people. Meaning that it seems like God loves everybody the same across the board--and He does.

Therefore if He loves everybody the same, then everyone should be getting the same kind of treatment. That is not true!

Because even though God is not a respecter of people, He does respect obedience and He does respect faith.

In other words, God loves us all the same. He loves you; He loves me; He loves people across the United States and He even loves the people who hate Him.

He loves people in every religion--this is pretty big stuff--He loves people who have hurt people in deep dark ways. Love is never the issue with God.

There will be people in the eternal place of fire that He loves. So He's no respecter of persons in the sense that He loves us all.

But where God draws that line, is that He rewards the obedient. He rewards those who step out in faith.

That's where the confusion comes in. A lot of the people that you see that may be moving in deeper places, more rewarding places.

It doesn't mean that God has something better for them than for you and it doesn't mean that this first doesn't make sense. It just means that they might be operating at a higher level of obedience than you.

They might be operating at a higher level of faith. That's not to make you mad, that's make you say, "I need to be more obedient. I need to take different and deeper steps of faith."

Because we all do and we all don't sometimes because we get comfortable we let the preacher do it with at the church do it with the guy on TV do it.

God wants you to do it. He wants you to pray; He wants you to hold your hand over the sea that's keeping you from crossing. He wants you to look up and talk to a God that's going to answer you back.

He wants you to begin to do all of those things that He went to Calvary for: to give you and I access. We don't have to go through a person to get to him, we can go right to Him.

We don't need a preacher, priest or a professional. We can go right to him. That's the price of the veil being rent in two.

So when you begin to make those tiny little gestures of communicating and you begin to bring him joy by coming into his presence more, that is when this avalanche of favor begins the fall!

That's when you also begin to experience what you see many others experiencing—don't ever think that he doesn't love you the same! He does!

But He has to reward others differently, because they're taking greater measures to love him and obey him.

Not just to love and obey Him but to take steps that prove that their face is real. This is serious, today you can do more to take a greater step of faith!

Obey him in a deeper way and the heavens will open for you!

[illegible]

Make a Decree... Change Your World!

Day 26

"Thou shalt also decree a thing, and it shall be established unto thee: and the light shall shine upon thy ways."

Job 22:8 KJV

God realizes that everything we face is a battle. We fight our flesh, powers of darkness and negativity all around us.

Our walk with Him is a process, so in this verse God tells us that if we make a decree, He will establish it.

In other words God is telling us, “You speak healing over your body, I will heal your body. You speak salvation over your children and household, I will save them. You speak prosperity over your business, and I will establish your business.”

Everything in the Bible is voice activated! A decree is made with your mouth. Demons are allowed to do certain things and curses can manifest because of the words that are spoken.

Our mouth has the power to set Heaven in motion and Hell in motion. The power of life and death are in the tongue (Proverbs 18:25).

Begin to decree over your life! Give verbal decrees over your business, over your church, over your ministry.

Quit releasing negative. Decree what you desire and watch what the Master will do.

You speak the words, God does the work!

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and extend across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

Day 27

“This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not.”

John 8:6

Jesus knew how to tune people out.

He didn't let people's words or attitudes contaminate His sanctuary.

If you're going to stay in faith, move in faith and receive all that God has for you, you have to learn how to function with negative people around you.

Everyone has an opinion! People are going to speak their mind, and the enemy wants to use that to get inside your sanctuary and contaminate your faith.

You're going to hear things in your everyday life that go against your believe system.

We have to be able to go to work, go to church, go shopping, and even go to Thanksgiving dinner with your family without being contaminated.

You can't blow up, or get angry, or condemn and criticize them.

How do you tune the wrong people out? Get in touch with what you believe! When you start to hear the wrong things just begin to say, "In the Name of Jesus I know what I believe!"

You may have to be kind to those people and understand where they're at, but you never have to agree with them and let what they say remove your faith disposition.

Learn to hear, but not listen. Learn to look, but not see. Learn to touch, but not feel.

When you can protect the Anointing that God has put in you, you will never skip a beat on the timing that He has for you!

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and extend across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

Day 28

"Now when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house; and his windows being open in his chamber toward Jerusalem, he kneeled upon his knees three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did aforetime."

- Daniel 6:10

Daniel had this unusual habit: he prayed 3 times a day. Three times a day he went to prayer and, more than likely, he would face Jerusalem

One day Daniel woke up and he wasn't in his chamber or the palace; he was in a lion's den. Guess what he did in that lion's den? He prayed 3 times a day.

Guess what happened? The lions did not eat him.

If you always wait until you're in a crisis to pray, you may never pray. You'll be too focused on your crisis. But if you go into every crisis with a habit that is already working for you, you will pray out of habit.

Too many wait for a crisis before they start to pray.

They aren't used to praying or singing and then they don't think it's working because they don't feel anything because they are engulfed by their situation.

But because Daniel had an operating habit, he just went into the next condition, the next situation, and it just worked automatically.

Your habit takes you into your habitation.

Don't wait until you're sick to confess healing scriptures!
Confess healing scriptures when you're well!

Don't wait to confess peace scriptures when you are in turmoil!
Get peace into you every day!

Don't Wait For Your Big Break. Don't wait for amazing phone call. Don't wait for someone to discover you.

Discover God every day and you will discovered by God at His exact time for you!

[illegible]

Day 29

"Give a portion to seven, and also to eight; for thou knowest not what evil shall be upon the earth."

Ecclesiastes 11:2

God is very clear about prophecy and He is very clear that there are hard times ahead. We don't need the newscasters to tell us and we don't need to read another book.

The Glory of God is getting better, and the church is getting stronger, but that other kingdom out there is in for a severe shaking. God wants to protect His people; He wants us to prosper no matter what takes place on the earth!

In this verse He tells us how to do it—you diversify your funds. You "divide your portion up to seven, and even up to eight."

Are you a sower of good seed? You may give your tithes, which is great, but God wants us to spread our portion out a little bit more. Any seed that you have that you can sow, and anywhere that the Holy Spirit would lead you to seed into—maybe into the ground of the poor, into the ground of the Jewish people, or into the ground of the widow or the orphan.

How do you preserve yourself in the days that are ahead? Don't just trust the government, don't just trust your 401K, and don't just trust your retirement plan—those are all wonderful natural resources—but your trust the Kingdom of God!

It is the only soil that guarantees you INCREASE in ANY TIME that goes on in the earth! Give today, seven or eight different portions, and God will keep you and your seed in the days ahead!

Notes

[illegible]

Day 30

“Jesus saith unto him, 'Rise, take up thy bed, and walk.' ”

John 5:8 KJV

In this verse Jesus was talking to the man who was paralyzed, yet He told the man to take up his bed and walk. It seemed strange that Jesus would ask a man to do what he couldn't do.

Jesus will never ask you to do anything He's not going to give you the power to do!

You may hear God speaking to you to give a certain amount of money, to give of your labor, to give away some of your furniture, to get on that plane even though you don't like to fly, to help out at the church or whatever God may be asking of you—you may feel completely unqualified for.

You may feel like you don't have enough or feel like you're not good enough.

If God is asking you to do it, if He is speaking to your spirit or speaking through another individual, He will enable you. God would never ask you if He wasn't going to give you the power to do it, to give it, to have it or to walk in it!

Then the man tried he found there was a power there that he didn't have on his own.

If God asks you to do something it isn't going to be like it used to when you tried it in your own strength. When you're obedient to the Lord there is a power that will cause you to do what you couldn't do before!

[illegible]

You're Healed to Overcome!

Your pain has a purpose.

Day 31

“And he took his staff in his hand, and chose him five smooth stones out of the brook, and put them in a shepherd's bag which he had, even in a scrip; and his sling was in his hand: and he drew near to the Philistine.”

- 1 Samuel 17:40

The reason that God equips you, heals you, and strengthens you isn't just to go live a great life. He heals you and strengthens you so you can approach and become proactive in many of the other battles that you're fighting.

God doesn't want you to wait until the enemy hits you. He doesn't want you to wait until you get sick the next time or when you get a notice that you've been laid off.

He wants you to become proactive; as David approached the giant.

Today, there is something that's really been affecting you. It's been tormenting you and it's been lying to you. It could be challenging you in an area of temptation or it could be a voice that's been telling you that you will die before your time.

These are very real spiritual battles and some of these are physical battles. We, so often, fail to realize that the reason you go to church is to be strengthened.

Not strengthened just to get strong, but strengthened for battle.

Strengthened to say, "You know what, today I'm going to take a new aggression towards these voices." I'm going to command these voices, instead of waiting for them to go.

I'm going to take a charge over my body; what I put in it, what I put on it, and where I place it.

So remember everything that David did: he got his sling, he got his stone and he got his shepherd's bag. He got all of his weapons, but he didn't just say I'm weaponized.

He said, “I'm moving towards the giant.”

I'm moving towards these things that have been after me for so long. That memory, that sin, that bondage and that sickness-- you've had your last day with me!

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.
